

The Department of Religious Studies Presents

Rabbi Reuven Firestone, PhD

Regenstein Professor in Medieval Judaism and Affiliate Professor of Religion at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion and University of Southern California

Dr. Firestone has written over one hundred scholarly chapters and articles and eight books. He served as vice president of the Association for Jewish Studies (AJS) and president of the International Qur'anic Studies Association (IQSA) and has initiated and continues to be involved in numerous projects and initiatives which bring together Jews Muslims and Christians, Jews and Arabs, and Israelis and Palestinians.

Charleston
Interreligious Council

*How to Diss a False Prophet:
Protecting Religion by Rejecting God's Messengers*

Thursday, October 11, 2018 7:30-9:00 pm
Jewish Studies Center—Arnold Hall

*Abraham: The First Jew, Christian or Muslim:
A Comparative Study of the Patriarch in Three Scriptures*

Friday, October 12, 2018 12:00-1:00 pm
Jewish Studies Center—Library (2nd floor)