

4 Solstices in Asheville, North Carolina:

A Story of Spiritual Improvisation and Cultural Appropriation

A sabbatical lecture by

Prof. Elijah Siegler

Department of Religious Studies

THURSDAY. NOVEMBER 29, 2018

3:30 PM

ARNOLD HALL—JEWISH STUDIES CENTER

Marvel at how the Summer Solstice is observed by four traditions (New Age, “Indigenous,” “Daoist,” and Wiccan)! Hear how one researcher bravely attended four religious ceremonies in four days! Find out how hyper-eclecticism can become a new civic norm!
