

Lightning, God, and the Future

Dr. Jeff Kripal

Distinguished Professor of Religious Studies, Rice University

Dr. Kripal will discuss a unique set of non-ordinary stories as both inspirations and as guides to our future humanities (be these disciplines or natures). These are stories that point toward new knowledge and new ontologies based on the paranormal, mystical mutants, afterlife encounters, and much more! Hear remarkable tales and learn about their academic significance!
