Course Description:
Students in this course will approach religion as “movement in time and place,” enacted in and through the body, the home, the homeland and the cosmos. Through the media of literature and film, we will examine the narratives of individuals and/or groups that negotiate self, religion and culture through the experiences of displacement as the stranger, “the outsider.” How does one create “a home” in an alien place? How does one traverse a cultural and religious terrain that is “foreign?” Our examination will focus on the body and sensuality; on the home as religious dwelling; on cultural and religious transportation and transformation, and on the cosmos as the ultimate homeland.

This course also satisfies the General Education requirements for a course in the Humanities, which address these two additional Learning Outcomes: 1) Students analyze how ideas are represented, interpreted or valued in various expressions of human culture; 2) Students examine relevant primary source materials as understood by the discipline and interpret the material in writing assignments.

Students will demonstrate successful mastery of the General Education Learning Outcomes #1 and # 2 by writing a well-organized, analytical, 2-3-page paper that identifies and interprets representations of Voodoo as expressed in and by a popular Hollywood film and by their primary source, Karen McCarthy Brown’s Mama Lola: A Vodou Priestess in Brooklyn.

“…teaching-and learning-means moving back and forth between the familiar and the strange, and the familiarization of the other generates a limited but transformative empathy, which is one mark of the educated person, the humane neighbor, and the effective citizen.” ~Thomas Tweed, Crossing and Dwelling

11. Final Examinations and Final Course Grades

Prior to each final examination period, an examination schedule is published by the Registrar’s Office. Final examinations must be administered only at the time and place stated on the Examinations Schedule, except by written permission of the relevant campus authority.

 This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor.
Additional Course Notes

Attendance Policy: Class attendance and participation in group discussions are mandatory. Four absences will be allowed. Five or more absences may result in a lower final grade but MAY be excused with proper medical documentation. Eight absences will result in your being dropped from the class, which will earn you an F for the course. Please note that a memo from CofC Health Services does NOT automatically qualify as an ‘excused absence.’ Final determination of an excused absence always lies with the Instructor.

SNAP: If you have a disability that qualifies you for academic accommodation, please present a letter from the Center for Disability Services at the beginning of the semester. For more information regarding accommodation and the SNAP program, see: http://www.cofc.edu/~cds/index.htm.

Honor Code: The Code of Honor found in the Student Handbook will be strictly enforced. Plagiarism and cheating will not be tolerated and WILL be reported to the Honor Board. According to the Student Handbook plagiarism includes but is not limited to:

* The verbatim repetition, without acknowledgement, of the writings of another author. All significant phrases, clauses, or passages, taken directly from source material must be enclosed in quotation marks and acknowledged either in the text itself or in footnotes/endnotes.
* Borrowing without acknowledging the source.
* Paraphrasing the thoughts of another writer without acknowledgement.
* Allowing any other person or organization to prepare work which one then submits as his/her own.

Classroom Code of Conduct

—Selections taken from the Student Handbook, published by the President's Advisory Committee in cooperation with the Office of the President.

Your professor expects that you as a student:

1. Will be attentive and courteous during class.

2. Will complete the assigned work according to the course schedule.

3. Do not cut classes, come in late, or leave early. If you ever are late for class, enter in complete silence and do not walk between the class and the professor. Never leave during class unless you absolutely must. Leaving for a short break and then returning is not acceptable. The professor is not a TV set, but is a person addressing the class, and it is rude to leave when someone is addressing you.

4. Turn off cell phones, pagers, and all other electronic devices. Should you need to leave the classroom during an exam, you will be required to leave your cell phone with the Instructor.

5. Visible and noisy signs of restlessness are rude as well as disruptive to others. If you cannot sit still or stay awake, you should not be taking a college class. Do not begin packing your book bag or otherwise indicate that you think it is time for class to come to an end; wait for the professor to dismiss class. If the class period has ended but the professor has not finished and you cannot stay any longer, leave in complete silence.

6. Come to class prepared to work. Your professor expects you to prepare for class by completing reading and homework assignments. If you are unprepared for class, this may prevent you from participating in a class activity. Do not present your lack of preparation as a problem for the professor to solve or excuse.
