

An inaugural collaboration between Foundation for Spirituality and the Arts (FSA) and College of Charleston's Religious Studies Department

Reflections on Contemporary Art and Faith:

An inspiring, poetic, and discursive evening

Monday
6-8pm
November 1st 2021

Wells Fargo Auditorium
College of Charleston
5 Liberty St. Charleston SC

Image: Amina Ahmed
Circle Square Triangle, 2020
Gum Tempera on paper
30 x 22 inches

Curatorial presentations by Tyler Rollins and Leeza Ahmady (FSA executive director and director of programs)

Lecture Performance by New York, London, and Tehran-based artist, Amina Ahmed

Culminating in a group conversation and audience Q&A moderated by Professor and Film Scholar, Elijah Siegler

Followed by a reception with refreshments

Reflections on Contemporary Art and Faith:

An Evening with Artist Amina Ahmed, and Curators Tyler Rollins & Leeza Ahmady

Monday 6-8pm
November 1st, 2021

Wells Fargo Auditorium
College of Charleston
5 Liberty St. Charleston SC

An inaugural collaboration between Foundation for Spirituality and the Arts (FSA) and College of Charleston's Religious Studies Department

With curatorial talks by Tyler Rollins and Leeza Ahmady (FSA executive director and director of programs)

Lecture Performance by New York, London,
and Tehran-based artist, Amina Ahmed

Culminating in a group conversation and
audience Q&A moderated by Professor and
Film Scholar, Elijah Siegler

Followed by a reception with refreshments

