

Black Atlantic Religions: PASSIONATELY HUMAN, NO LESS DIVINE

April 18 | JCS 333
2023 3:30 PM

Black Atlantic religious histories are deeply entwined in themes of captivity, exile, enslavement, deliverance, search for identity, and reclaiming humanity and dignity in the context of colonialism and racial oppression. Dr. Mills will argue that these persistent themes have forged the core of Black religious experiences in the Americas and the Caribbean Islands, since the Atlantic Slave Trade.

*Dr. Troy Mills,
Professor of Religious Studies
Claremont McKenna College*

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON

DEPARTMENT OF
RELIGIOUS STUDIES